Emergency situations can be challenging for all of us. This group will build familiarity with the sights, sounds and people involved in emergency situations. There may also be a visit from an emergency service worker!

Safety First will target:

- Problem solving skills.
- Emotional Regulation Skills.
- Building confidence and familiarity when engaging with emergency service workers.
- Developing an understanding of emergencies and emergency service workers.

Funding: This service can be funded privately or with NDIS group programs funding allocation.
