Time: 9am - 11:30am, Monday 6th - Friday 10th January 2025

Summer Morning Fun is a three-hour program for young people aged 4 through 12 years.

In this program, we are working on building skills for:

- Positive social experiences
- Confidence to interact with others
- Active listening and turn-taking skills
- Skills to join in group activities
- Skills for coping with upsets and staying calm
- Asking and answering questions
- Following spoken and written instructions
- Learning new words and understanding word meanings
- Learning to use sentences to share information and experiences (written, spoken, and/or using an AAC device)
- Using kitchen tools for basic food preparation
- Hand skills such as writing and using scissors
- Balancing, planning, and using body movements for play

This is done through shared group activities within a supported environment.
