Time: Saturdays, 11am - 12pm

Duration: 9 weeks, commencing Saturday 8th February 2025

Saturday Friends is a one-hour social skills group for mid-primary-aged young people with social communication needs.

In this social group, we are working on building:

- Positive social experiences
- Confidence for making and being with friends
- Skills for having conversations with friends
- Awareness of appropriate social behaviours
- Cooperation and teamwork skills
- Skills for accepting other people's ideas
- Skills for joining in new and different activities
- Skills for coping with upsets and staying calm in a group
- Skills for following the group process

This involves shared group games, projects, and conversation in a supported environment.
